

MEET
Ashima & Jeffery

— and daughter Victoria —

The Birth Parents

You are amazing! Thank you for considering us as adoptive parents for your child. We admire your strength and courage, and would be honored to take this journey with you.

WE can think of nothing better than welcoming your child into our home and our lives.

Thank you for your unwavering dedication to your child as demonstrated through the loving choice of adoption. The gift of life is a precious one and your selfless act of allowing your child to be raised by another is beyond comprehension.

As a couple, we balance out one another quite well and make a dynamic team. Together we are truly more than the mere sum of our parts. The home we have created is one of unconditional love and support. Though we both have a respectful “anxiety” about parenting, it is a challenge we enthusiastically embrace and enjoy each and every day.

We hope you enjoy the rest of this booklet and the glimpse it gives you into our lives, home, and world.

Our Story

Our love story began in August 2019,

On the first date, Ash was impressed by Jeff’s etiquette and jovial nature, whereas he was amazed by her simplicity and humbleness. We laughed and enjoyed each other’s conversation more than the delicious food on the table. When Ash first met Jeff’s daughter, Victoria, they felt an instant heartconnection. Eventually, we fell in love, and after two years of dating, we celebrated our union in June 2021 at The Bridge Church in the presence of family, friends, and God. It was a beautiful ceremony.

We have joyfully participated in every festival and activity together. Unbreakable and steadfast friendship is the bedrock of our love and marriage. With God’s grace and mercy and our unwavering commitment to each other, we are bound together forever. We have nothing uncommon, yet our journey has been enriched by embracing each other’s cultural diversities.

Despite our DIVERSE cultural backgrounds, we are united in our commitment to instilling STRONG MORAL VALUES and ETIQUETTE in our children. This shared goal transcends any differences, ensuring our children grow up with a deep sense of respect and integrity.
